MARY MacKILLOP

Mary MacKillop was born in Melbourne in 1892 and died in Sydney on 8 August 1909. She took the religious name of Mary of the Cross. Responding to the isolation of colonial families, she pioneered a new form of religious life to provide education for their children. She and her Sisters shared life, the life of the poor and the itinerant, offering special care to destitute women and children. She is remembered for her eagerness to discover God's will in all things, for her charity in the face of calumny and for her abiding trust in God's providence.
