New Translation of the Order of the Mass

The Apostles' Creed

While the Nicene Creed will continue to be used as the Profession of Faith, it will also be possible to use the Apostles' Creed, especially during the seasons of Lent and Easter. The Apostles' Creed is shorter and simpler than the Nicene Creed.

Having two different texts available for use means it will always be necessary to make it clear to the people, which is going to be used at each celebration of the Eucharist.
