The New Translation of the order of the MassThe Penitential Act

There will be three forms of the penitential Act, similar to the three alternatives in use at present.

The first form will incorporate the I confess. The new translation has a number of differences from the present version, notably in the re-introduction of the triple self-accusation, "through my fault, through my fault, through my most grievous fault;" which follows the Latin original exactly. The formula of absolution spoken by the celebrant has also been changed to make it closer to the Latin.

The second is a simple dialogue, similar to the one currently in use.

Both the first and second forms are followed by the Lord, have mercy.

The third form incorporates the Lord, have mercy, which is not repeated when this form is used.
