WE ALL HAVE OUR PART TO PLAY IN MOVING LENT INTO EASTER

By Erin Ryan

Liturgy and performance (i.e. opera) have a lot in common. There's music, singing, environment to design, gestures to memorise. There is no greater drama than the Triduum, with its processions and veneration and prostrations; the fire, the light low, the Exsultet, the story of salvation, and then the light rising upon lilies as "Alleluias" burst forth after a long Lent of fasting from this acclamation. But despite the similarities, liturgy and performance are not the same thing. In liturgy, we are not just putting on a good show. We aren't just sitting there watching performers act out a made-up tale. No, in liturgy, we are not trying to create a new reality from scratch. We are giving expression to a reality that already exists. We're living it, not just acting it out. And when we do this, everyone plays a part. Even if we are not lecturers, or cantors, or preachers or musicians or being baptised this Easter, we all have a part to play. Lent is like our practice to enter the story fully. Let's use Holy Week to prepare to be the people who make the liturgy come alive and tap into the mystery it is trying to portray.

HOLY LAND ANNUAL GOOD FRIDAY COLLECTION

The annual collection for the support of the church in the Holy Land takes place on Good Friday. This collection promotes the missionary work of the Church in the Holy Land by providing welfare assistance to local Christians in areas such as health, education, employment and housing. Parishes, schools, orphanages and medical centres throughout the Holy Land also rely on assistance from the Good Friday collection. Last year's Good Friday collection (including $179,800 from the Archdiocese of Perth):

- supported 29 parishes, four homes for orphans, three academic institutions;
- helped keep schools open for over 10,000 pre-K through grade 12 students;
- supported 120 men preparing to be priests or brothers;
- helped rehabilitate 80 homes for Christian families;
- provided senior care facilities in Bethlehem and Nazareth; and
- created 1,500 jobs in the Holy Land for Christians.

A donation to the Holy Father's annual appeal is a direct way to make a difference in the lives of those caught up in war, violence and instability in this region. Your generosity is greatly appreciated. Please remember the Christians of the Holy Land again on this Good Friday and also pray that peace and harmony will become a reality in the birthplace of Jesus.

SPIRITUAL REFLECTION FOR THE EASTER SEASON: The 'Little White Book' provides a short daily spiritual reflection from Easter Sunday to Pentecost. Only $2, and available at the Church foyer table while stocks last.

TWILIGHT RETREAT FOR PARISHIONERS

6-7.30pm, Monday 29 April, Upper Room

Nurturing the Spirit Within: Brother Bill Sullivan will explore the opportunities we have to grow the spirit within in the context of where we live and work and look at taking some quality time to nurture your spiritual world. Using scripture passages and accompaniment, he will look at practical ways to enliven your spiritual world. 24:7 SUBIACO YOUTH GROUP

Last week the focus was sacrificial love. Presented by Mario, 24:7 Youth Ministry Director, the key points covered were:
1. What is love? 2 Who in our lives reflect this kind of love? 3. How can we show this sacrificial love in our own lives?
Don't forget: every Friday, 6.30-8.30pm, Subiaco Parish Upper Room for all youth in Years 6-12. Need more information? If so, please contact Aidan Walsh on 0487 403 456 or Angela Firth on 0455 960 174.

SLAVERY FREE EASTER

Pope Francis said last month, "We cannot ignore the fact that there is as much slavery in the world today, as there was before, or perhaps more." Australians spent around $210 million on Easter chocolate last year. This year it will be about the same, or more. You can make a difference to the world, and to the lives of the enslaved children who are forced to pick the cocoa beans used in a lot of chocolate. Please buy and eat only slavery-free Easter eggs and chocolate. Look for one of these symbols on the chocolate wrapper.
