THE OUR FATHER IS THE SYNTHESIS OF EVERY PRAYER

By Christopher Wells, Vatican News

In his reflection on Sunday’s Gospel, Pope Francis said the disciples wanted “to experience the same ‘quality’” of prayer that was present in Jesus’ relationship with the Father. “They could see that prayer was an essential dimension in the life of their Master,” he said, noting that “each of His important actions was characterised by extended periods of prayer.” They recognised, too, that Jesus “did not pray like the other masters of the time”; rather, “His prayer is an intimate link with the Father.”

When the disciples asked Jesus to teach them to pray, the Pope said, the Lord did not simply “give an abstract definition of prayer or teach an effective technique for praying in order to ‘obtain’ something.” Instead, Jesus shared with them His own experience of prayer, “putting them directly in contact with the Father, and arousing in them a longing for a personal relationship with Him.”

This, Pope Francis said, “is the novelty of Christian prayer: It is a dialogue between people who love one another, a dialogue based on trust, sustained by listening, and open to the commitment to solidarity.”

The prayer Jesus taught them, the Our Father, “is one of the most precious gifts left to us by the divine Master during His earthly mission,” the Pope said. With this prayer, Jesus teaches us “to enter into the Fatherhood of God and shows us the way to enter into prayerful and direct dialogue with Him, through the way of filial trust.” The Our Father, he said, “is the synthesis of every prayer, and we always address it to the Father in communion with our brothers and sisters.”

PRAYER REQUESTS

In Ephesians 6:18, St Paul reminds us of our duty to pray for the welfare and needs of all God’s people. From today, a Book of Prayer Requests will be on a lectern in Our Lady’s Chapel. You are invited to share your prayer requests in this journal, and to also pray for those requests written there. Our various prayer groups will use this journal as a means of supporting your requests. Each Sunday, the journal will be taken up as part of the Offertory procession to be placed on the altar along with the bread and wine.
