REGISTER NOW: 'ATTENTIVENESS' WITH BR BILL SULLIVAN FMS

6-7.30pm, Monday 22 July, Upper Room,

Each and every day God appears to us in ways so plain and ordinary that we often miss God's presence. It is often only after we reflect back that we see God reaching out to us in the ordinary encounters of the day. This reflection looks at the ways God is present to us in our daily encounters. The God with skin is a deeply personal God involved in the nooks and crannies of our lives.

FAITH FILLED AUSTRALIAN LIVES CELEBRATED DURING AD LIMINA VISIT

Cath News

Australian bishops are hopeful that a number of Australians could follow in the footsteps of St Mary of the Cross MacKillop and enter the Church's Communion of Saints. As part of their Ad Limina Apostolorum pilgrimage, bishops met with officials from the Congregation for the Causes of Saints, including its prefect, Cardinal Giovanni Becciu. Progress on the journey towards beatification of two prominent Australians – Eileen O'Connor and Dr Sr Mary Glowrey – was high on the meeting's agenda.

Sydney Auxiliary Bishop Anthony Randazzo, who has been involved with the cause for canonisation for Eileen O'Connor, said he was encouraged by what he heard from the officials of the Holy See. "While we in Australia already understand the holy life that Eileen led, including co-founding Our Lady's Nurses for the Poor, and we would like things to proceed quickly, the congregation explained that the process is complex – and rightly so."

The bishops also discussed other holy people who might one day progress down the path to sainthood, including famed 19th-century humanitarian Caroline Chisholm, St Vincent de Paul pioneer Charles O'Neill, Constance Gladman, a religious sister who was killed while teaching in Papua New Guinea, and Fr Joseph Canali, known as 'the Apostle of Brisbane'. Bishop Bosco Puthur, who led the delegation to the Congregation for the Causes of Saints, said as well as discussing people of the past who lived saintly lives, the conversation also explored how people today can pursue holiness. "We can sometimes look at the saints and think that we couldn't possibly live like they did," Bishop Puthur said. "But there is no reason that we can't hold them up as our role models whose faith, virtues and values gave witness to their Christian discipleship – even if they aren't yet recognised as saints by the universal Catholic Church."

VISITING SPEAKER PROGRAM: DANIEL ANG

This week Daniel Ang presented two interesting, informative, thought-provoking and challenging sessions. His presentations focussed on parish culture renewal and the results of this transformation. Each session included opportunities to reflect on how this process impacts each of us. Thanks to all who participated. Special thanks to Dan Lynch for arranging Daniel's visit, and to Tina Perez and Mary McComish for facilitating the sessions.

PALLIATIVE CARE RESEARCH: UNIVERSITY OF NOTRE DAME & ST VINCENT'S HOSPITAL DARLINGHURST

In August 2018, Professor David Kissane AC was appointed Chair of Palliative Care Research at Notre Dame University. Since then, Professor Kissane has been providing an experienced public voice articulating the ethical and medical arguments against medical-assisted dying and euthanasia as responses to end-of-life situations. He has established an initial focus, which is examining 'existential and spiritual distress, demoralisation and the desire to die and how to treat such states with meaning-centred interventions.'

Professor Kissane's Palliative Care Research Report is now available at notredame.edu.au/research/palliative-care-research/chair/

REMINDER: PLANNED GIVING ENVELOPES

Envelopes for the new financial year are now available for collection in the Church foyer.

EXTERIOR CHURCH LIGHTING

During the week, the exterior lighting at the southern end of the Church was restored. Work is continuing on both the Piazza and garden lighting.
