POPE FRANCIS' THOUGHTS FOR LENT

By Cindy Wooden, Catholic News Service

Lent is a good time to concentrate on fighting the urge to gossip about others and instead trying to correct one's own faults and defects, Pope Francis said.
 "We all know it usually is easier or more comfortable to notice and condemn the defects and sins of others rather than seeing our own with that kind of clarity."
 The pope returned to the theme telling parishioners that Jesus "wants to teach us to not go around criticising others, not go looking for others' defects, but look first at your own." If someone were to say, "but, Father, I don't have any," the pope said he would explain that "I assure you if you don't notice you have any here, you'll find them in purgatory! It's better to notice them here. Unfortunately," Francis said, "people seldom stop at just noticing others' defects, something "we are experts at."
 "What almost always happens next", he said, "is that we talk about them, not telling the person to his or her face in a way that could help the person improve but indulging freely and happily in gossip". The pope said, "we are experts in finding the bad things in others and not seeing our own."
 Speaking the Sunday before Lent was to begin, Francis said it would be great if everyone tried during Lent to ask themselves, "Am I a hypocrite who smiles and then turns around to criticise and destroy with my tongue?" He said, "If, by the end of Lent, we are able to correct this a bit and not go around always criticising others behind their backs, I assure you (the celebration of) Jesus' resurrection will be more beautiful."

Twelve-year-old Thandolwayo would walk 7 kilometres each day to collect contaminated water for her family. It looked like she would never realise her hope of finishing her education and becoming a nurse, until a Caritas Australia supported project created access to clean water helping Thandolwayo to stay at school and achieve a future full of hope.

Please donate to Project Compassion 2019 and to provide clean water and a future full of hope for vulnerable communities in Zimbabwe. Lives change when we all give 100%. Donate through Parish boxes or envelopes, by phone on 1800 024 413 or by visiting caritas.org.au/projectcompassion.

EUTHANASIA LEGISLATION

During Lent the Archbishop is asking the Catholic community to deepen its understanding concerning the possible legalising of Euthanasia in order to promote a culture of life in our society, rather than a culture of death.
 A handout will be available after each Mass.
