

Homeless and Mental Health Services

Too many Australians are currently experiencing or at risk of homelessness. These people are often experiencing a range of disadvantages, including mental illness, disability, family violence, substance misuse, discrimination and social isolation.

The St Vincent de Paul Society in Western Australia has a strong commitment to the range of issues that lead single men, women and families to become homeless or at risk of homelessness. In Western Australia we offer several specialised homelessness and mental health services to support people in need.

How can I assist the Refugee & Migrant Support Program?

The Refugee & Migrant Support Program is always looking for more volunteers to get involved in this very rewarding work. There are lots of jobs to do and volunteers can do as much or as little as they like in an area which appeals to them.

Donations of food, clothing and household goods to the St Vincent de Paul Society will greatly assist volunteers in providing hope and comfort to newly arrived individuals through the Refugee & Migrant Support Program.

How can I find out more?
